Investment Manager Commentary

Indonesia equity market weakened in August overshadowed by external uncertainty such as; escalation of US – China trade tension, Yuan devaluation and yield inversion between US Treasury 2 & 10 years raised concern on global economic recession. JCI denominated in USD weakened by 2.0%. Rupiah weakened by 1.26% to 14,198 against USD. In order to support growth Bank Indonesia cut interest rate for the second time this year by 25 basis points to be 5.50%. Foreign investor in equity market posted net foreign outflow of IDR9.27 trillion. August inflation rose to 3.49% YoY from previous month 3.32% YoY. Lower portfolio performance compared to benchmark was due to allocation in consumer discretionary, industrials & financials. Meanwhile health care contributed positively to performance.
