Investment Manager Commentary

Following a strong performance in January, the equity market took a breather in February and posted negative performance -1.37%. Global newsflow remained conducive where trade negotiation between US and China progressed positively. On the domestic front, Bank Indonesia maintained benchmark rate at 6% and signalled that benchmark rate is near its peak. These positive newsflow supported Indonesia bond market that posted +1.92% in February. Foreign investors posted IDR32.8 trillion net buy in the bond market, but posted net sell of IDR3.4 trillion in the equity market. The portfolio posted negative performance due to allocation in the equity market.
