Investment Manager Commentary

Following a strong performance in January, Indonesia equity market took a breather in February where JCI posted negative performance -1.37%. Global newsflow remained conducive where trade negotiation between US and China progressed positively. On the domestic front, Bank Indonesia maintained benchmark rate at 6% and signalled that benchmark rate is near its peak. Foreign investor posted net outflow IDR3.4 trillion from the equity market and Rupiah fell 0.69% to 14,069 per USD. Meanwhile India equity market in IDR posted positive performance 1.48%. Portfolio allocation in Materials and Energy sectors result in positive attribution to portfolio, while allocation in Consumer Discretionary and Industrials sectors posted negative attribution.
