Investment Manager Commentary

Equity and bond market posted positive performance in August supported by optimism of economic reopening as COVID-19 cases improve in Indonesia. PPKM in Jakarta was lowered to level 3 in August as cases improve. The government targets lower fiscal deficit in 2022 to 4.85% of GDP, compared to 5.7% in 2021, indicating fiscal discipline stance that views favorably by the market. The government and Bank Indonesia also announced the extension of burden sharing scheme to 2022. The policy support government's budget funding, reduces interest payment and bond issuance. Macroeconomic condition remain strong where foreign exchange reserves reached USD144.9 billion, a record high level. Trade activity is positive amid strong global trade, where year-to-date trade surplus amounted to USD14.4 billion in July 2021.
