Investment Manager Commentary

Equity market was again under pressure in December amid stronger USD and lower expectation of Fed rate cut in 2025. The Fed's latest projection indicate a more gradual approach of rate cut with only 50bps cut for 2024, lower than 100bps in the previous forecast. Heightened volatility is expected to extend into 2025 as investors wait for Mr Trump to fulfill his campaign promises and its impact to US inflation. Domestically, VAT rates increase plan was ultimately cancelled by the Finance Minister ahead of New Year's eve. Meanwhile the IDR38 trillion stimulus to cushion the impact of VAT hike remain in place for 2025, a positive factor to further support purchasing power. Bank Indonesia maintained BI Rate unchanged at 6% citing pressure on IDR amid stronger USD environment. BI emphasized policy focus it strengthen Rupiah stability. Domestic inflation came in at 1.57% YoY for 2024, a record low level. Portfolio allocations in material contributed positive attributions, meanwhile allocations in financials contributed negative attributions to performance.
