Investment Manager Commentary

The bond market turned negative in October as the market awaits US election and The Fed's monetary policy decision in November. Possibility of Trump re-elected weighed on the market, as Trump's America-centric policies are seen as detrimental for the global economy. As result, USD appreciated in the month, which put pressure on Rupiah that depreciated -3.7% in October. With some of the US economic data recorded better-than-expected readings so far, the 10Y US Treasury yields reversed upward, increasing from 3.78% to 4.28% (+50bps) by the end of October. In line with the UST yield movement, the 10Y INDOGB yields rose from 6.45% to 6.79% (+34bps). Indonesia GDP growth was down to 4.95% in 3Q-2024 from 5.05% the previous quarter. Private consumption growth was stable at 5.1% YoY, while contribution from net exports reversed to -0.1 pts in 3Q from a 0.2 pts gain in the previous quarter. Five months of deflation ended in October, with monthly inflation came in at 0.08% MoM. Yield rose on all tenors, with the 5-year bond yield underperformed the most, increased by 50bps to 6.65%.
